I breezed right through this trilogy, so of course it had to be a good series. There was nothing really remarkable about it, but it was still pretty good. Anyone who likes soul mates or vampire books, would enjoy this book. Fair warning the writing can kind of be annoying at time.

P.S. If Gabriel had his own book, I'd read it in a heartbeat.

You can see this review at Soaring Up High

In all due honesty, the last book of this series was a big dissapointment. I just struggled to finish it and follow the plot line.

Not ashamed. I will admit I did all of the above. I was so happy and excited that I read it all in one day. Partly while Walking Dead was on which is crazy because nothing stops me from watching Walking Dead. Then I got to the end and did this.

Lots and lots of crying. I just realized that there are a lot of Supernatural gifs in this review. Oh well. The characters aren't paper and have many emotions. A lot of which transferred to me and made me feel that way. You know what I am talking about Micalca! This is a beautiful series and I know it had to end but doesn't mean I wanted it to. Thank you Micalca for writing this series. It is the series that led me to you:) Now if you will excuse me I am going to go weep in the corner as I grieve over the loss of my series. Lol.

I'm a little disappointed with this series. Not one of my favourites. I enjoyed the Outsider series a lot more than this one. I found it so predictable and a lot like the Twilight Saga.

Donna Langley says

Just wow!

So many gone! I am so sad, was a great story and I enjoyed it, could not put it down! Sure wish Diana and Aiden and Isaac was still with them but I guess that's the breaks

Marianna says

A fitting end to a great series....
