Carla says

"24 Karats" is a book of three short stories by Authors Blake Karrington, Leo Sullivan, and David Weaver.

The first story is "The Minister" by Blake Karrington. Kevin and his Uncle Joe are nothing more than pimps in the pulpit. They use the congregation to get what they want. Will Kevin ever find the err of his ways? Read and find out!

"Saving Sierra" by Leo Sullivan shows you exactly what happens when you have done all you can with no results. This is a story of a man, Bryce, pushed to the edge of desperation while he fights to protect the one he loves. A robbery gone wrong starts off this dramatic tale. The things that happen next will leave you at the edge of your seat. I can't wait to see what happens and hope for a full length novel!

"Doug Montana" by David Weaver is the story of Doug, a man that carelessly hops from woman to woman...as long as that woman is able to financially support him. When he is hit with an ultimatum, he must decide between love or money in ways that you could only imagine! The poetry at the beginning and end of this story was a nice added touch!

All three stories were very well written and unique. Loved them! 5 stars!

Oh this book was juicy!! From beginning to especially the end, all three authors did their thing with this one and I look forward to the second installment.

These 3 authors came together to make this book, and you can tell each has their own style and stayed true to themselves and their fans. Each author has submitted the beginning of a story and they all promise more drama and action to come. The other 2 thirds will come in the following parts of the trilogy. After reading the first book, as always, I am waiting for the rest of the story with bated breath. The raw intensity of each story will pull you in and have you wondering how many more twists and turns they can incorporate into the story after they have given you the first parts. I am always raving about David Weaver's talent, and I think that he found the best men to collaborate with in this project. They all bring heat to their literature. You won't be disappointed. Buy one for yourself and splurge on a second for a friend or family member. #TeamBRS
