Terri Christie says

I enjoyed some of the helpful tips throughout this book, but I found it boring and it did not grab my attention and hold it for very long. I found myself randomly flipping through the pages to hopefully find something that would grab my attention for more than a few moments. Even after revisiting it a few times, after a snack, in the evening when the children were in bed still nada. I do appreciate the hard work and time that went into this book but it just wasn't my cup of tea.

Martine Sansoucy says

I really like this book! It's motivating and I love the Planet Do It chapter! I did have to skip over a lot of the baby/younger child parenting pages, but I do love the organization tips, and tips on staying inspired.
