Kennedy says

I loved these books as a child. A mystery with a basset hound! They are jsut as cute today. The illustrations are great.

Kentaro says

It was funny and mysterious.

Carissa says

I loved the illustrations in this as a kid.

Cameron Chaney says

A cute Halloween-themed mystery that can be read in 10 or 15 minutes. Nothing amazing, but children's books from the '80s and '90s are always very wholesome and warm. Liked it!

A book my 6 yr old loved, a little old for my preschoolers. A solid reading level 3 book, this reader has a good amount of advanced vocabulary words, but not so long that it discourages a new reader. Used it for his read out loud book, which was perfect. It took about 15 mins for him to read and had just enough new vocabulary words to make it challenging. Also, it was a fun and interesting story he could get into. He liked it so much, he asked for more by this author. Great reading book!

I brought this book home to check out for my reading group at the personal care home -- found it too long for them to be able to keep interest in. Good story for Hallowe'en for middle age kids - -

Kathleen says

I grew up with this series, and I still love it! Every so often I'll come across a volume I don't remember, and have to read or reread it to make sure.

Rachael says

One of my favorites in the series so far, mostly because of Gwen's insistence of finding a rational explanation for the 'hautings.' While everyone around her is getting freaked out, she refuses to give in to superstition. Once again, Gerstein's illustrations make everything even better. I especially enjoyed his diagrams of Fletcher's possible Halloween costumes.

Tim Chizmar says

Loved that as a kid

Brenna Skirata says

I haven't read this book since I was a child. I loved it then and I would really enjoy a re-read now.

---

Teresa says

This was a big favorite as a child. I loved it so much I repurchased it as an adult.
