From Reader Review The 90 Day Plan to Marketing Your Book: A Powerful Day to Day Proven Strategy to Implement, Maximize Exposure and Explode Sales of Your Book for online ebook

Liliana Rice says

If there ever was a perfect book written for the aspiring author, then this is it! The 90 Day plan to Marketing you book delivers on its promises with easy to read, day by day actionable tasks that all combine to drive you towards more book sales. It is the kind of knowledge that many learn only through trial and error while some authors are unlucky enough to never get their hands on such pearly gems of hard worn knowledge. It is very well written and does not fly off into needlessly technical terms. Rather the author breaks down every stage into simple yet powerful steps that anyone can act on to see results. There is no room for excuses with this book because all of the tools and strategies are easily accessible to anyone with access to the internet and they are mostly free. I also appreciated how every chapter had links to references and supporting materials that readers could then follow up on for any further learning, which I can tell you right now, is not necessary because this book is not a difficult read at all. Even I, a person who is relatively well informed about digital marketing, found a lot to be learned within this book as well as some resources that I did not know about. Best of all was how I could see some of the techniques provided relating and being applicable to marketing in other industries not just books. This is book is a must have for any current author, aspiring writers and traditional marketers who are looking for new ideas. I would absolutely recommend this book for anyone to buy

This is definitely the book that you want to read well in advance before you launch your book. Love it. Simple, concise and clear road-map to use for your book marketing strategies.

Karine says

Perfect roadmap and a timetable to guide you through marketing your book over a several platforms. This amazing book calls for action, not mere reading.

Shirley McLain says

What a great book for a author who wants to find out how to make their book a success. This book is packed with numerous and powerful ways to promote your book. It is spelled out chapter by chapter on when and what to do to get your book seen. It ends leaving you with the confidence to make your book a best seller.

Melanie Rach says

This is a clear cut plan that will get you the results you want! For me it was worth it alone for Chapter Six: Your Blog Outreach Strategy. I had never tried to have a blog before and would never have considered the importance for my book but sure see the value now. In a market of sink or swim this book is the life preserver.

Simone says

Great from start to finish. This is a clear cut plan that will get you the results you want! All you have to do is read it and follow the steps. This book will become your mentor for all of your marketing needs. You'll learn how to utilize e-mail lists and a whole lot more.
