Simple but short stories. With two in one book, there definitely wasn't much character development. Liked the second one better than the first but they were both ok.

This review is for the first novel in this book, Dangerous Admirer by Valerie Hansen. The mystery developed well, and the characters were likable, but the ending was lame and didn't make any sense.

Wendy Sparkes says

Rachel Hollister is part owner of Serenity Cards & Gifts, & Holly Maddox is the proud owner of Candy Capers. With Valentine's Day approaching, it's one of the busiest times of their businesses. Both are being threatened & sabotaged, & both have a handsome hero to come to the rescue.

In Dangerous Admirer, Rachel Hollister is being stalked so newcomer Deputy Jace Morgan steps in to protect her. It's just too bad he's sworn off love because Rachel is the type of girl he would be interested in knowing. Rachel doesn't date cops, even handsome ones like Jace - at least she didn't. Not until Jace stays put, determined to protect her as her stalker's threats escalate.

I really enjoyed this story.

In Dark Obsession, Holly Maddox is getting break-ins at her shop & getting pressures which escalate to threats to sell her home & property. High school sweetheart Eli Brody, who is home visiting his family for a while, steps in to help. Only, he walked away before & Holly isn't sure he's back to stay so doesn't want to turn to him for help. But danger is closing in, & Eli is determined to be there for her this time.

A bit obvious in whom the villain was, but I did enjoy Holly & Eli's romance story.

Following "Dark Obsession", Lynette Eason has 3 more books set in Rose Mountain:

Susan Webb says

kind of a screwy reason to be the antagonist but it was a good book. I enjoyed it

Donna says

Dangerous admirer: A good read, but I was bugged by the character of Rachel as she couldn't seem to follow instructions that were for her safety.

Dark Obsession: non-stop suspense!

Shamshaad says

2 Typical love stories with a bit of a twist with stalkers and the like...not bad...
