okay. this is the worst One Direction 'biography' i've ever read. and i'm a hardcore directioner. some of the facts weren't true eg "Did you know? harry and liam hang out so much that they have invented a new name for themselves that mixes both their names together. The result- Larry Stylenson" incorrect. Larry Stylinson is a bromance name for Harry and Louis that the fans came up with. Also, in the profile about Niall, it says his hair colour is blonde, no he is a natural brunette. NOT OK but good effort on being able to get a book to sell, even though some of the facts are false. (:
