I am reading this series as the same time as I am watching the anime. So far, I prefer the manga.

Yuuri arrive in a burned village where humans are fighting. The young king is against war and wants to change the Mazoku ways. The day of his coronation arrive, the boy needs to touch a sacred waterfall to complete the ceremony, unfrotunately, he gets throw back in Japan while doing so. He wakes up back in the girl toilet, where the bullies left him, and it seems like no time have past at all.

It takes a whole two months for him to be suck back in the Demon realm while he is taking a bath. A funny scene occurs where he arrives naked in the Demon world and is chase by fanboys. Guess there is something with water....

The war is coming close, Yuuri wants to avoid it at all cost. Gunter mention a legendary weapon that only the Maoh can wield. The boy leaves undercover with Conrad to retrieve it. He is surprise by Wolfram, who had followed him, explaining that since he is his fiancée, they should be together. The young lord gets sea sick and is stuck in their cabin.

It is so funny that Wolfram pretend to hate Yuuri but is super possessive of his fiancée, and jealous of every other man that talk to him.

There is not a lot much happen in this volume, but I love the characters in this series and the silliness of it.
