Snap of the Super-Goop: A Branches Book Troy Cummings

Pick a book. Grow a Reader!

This series is part of Scholastic's early chapter book line Branches, aimed at newly independent readers. With easy-to-read text, high-interest content, fast-paced plots, and illustrations on every page, these books will boost reading confidence and stamina. Branches books help readers grow!

In this tenth book, Alexander keeps seeing monsters that the S.S.M.P. has ALREADY defeated! But his friends Rip and Nikki think he is going crazy. Could there be zombie monsters on the loose? Or is there a monster that can turn into ANYTHING? Alexander will have to protect the town -- and the notebook -- from Stermont's latest monster!

Daniel Peet says

It was shocking because something happen when you least expect it

Maximilian Lee says

I liked this book because I like trains. I also liked this book because I like silly putty.

Snap of the Super-Goop is a fantasy book. This book is hilariously silly. It is unique as it includes report style pictures and descriptions of the monsters they encounter so the reader is aware of what the kids are facing. The names of the monsters are creative and very fitting, for example, a Bumpy Mummy is a bubble wrapped warrior. I would use this in a third or fourth grade class.

Kelly Carey says

The clues are all there, and astute readers should be able to figure out exactly who is the monster and what is going on in this shape shifting adventure.

Lilah says

It is very surprising.

11/20/2017  Yep...the series is evolving. I finally got to read March of the Vanderpants (#12) and realized that I needed to go back a few books to refresh my memory of several key monster fights. Can't wait for the dramatic conclusion!

6/28/2016  An excellent addition to the Notebook of Doom series. I've appreciated the way the series is evolving as the end comes into sight. With Book #9 the reader had a hint that there was a master monster controlling all the monsters in the town of Stermont. Those hints crystallized in this book. Can't wait for the next one.

Xavier loves these and is starting to understand the play-on-words chapter titles. I totally saw the villain coming and know who the Boss Monster is, but X doesn't. So it is perfect for that age. Looking forward to December for number 11.

The Brothers says

Dexter (8yo) read.

Anna says

My second grader had been reading this series, pretty fun books.

Becky B says

The SSMP is considering a new member while Alexander is sure he's seeing all these past monsters they've already defeated. No one else has seen anything and Alexander's not sure what is going on. The group also is trying to figure out who might be working for the big boss who is after their notebook. Meanwhile, their teacher is being extra mean to Nikki for some reason while she seems to love Rip.

Things are getting pretty tense in this book. This boss after the kids seems to mean business and thus this is probably the most serious of these books so far. It still shouldn't give kids nightmares, but it may keep them awake wondering what's going to happen in the next book. Sadly, I don't have the next book available and also didn't have #9 so I missed the introduction of Dottie, the newest member of the SSMP. This one will definitely help keep reluctant readers tearing through pages.

Notes on content: The monster in this can imitate anyone and anything and plays with the kids' minds a little. Violence is threatened, but no one is hurt except the monster who is just dried out.

Killian says

It was weird because Alexander saw that his teacher had to use lotion all the time and it turned out she was the super goop! They defeated her by turning the dryer to Sahara Desert! And that was kind of weird because all of Alexander's schools are weird.

Celeste says

Another excellent entry in this series. My children were absolutely spellbound and each night they begged me to read "one more chapter!". The Notebook of Doom series is truly one of a kind when it comes to making children want to read.
