Out of all of the Sister Magic books, this was definitely one of my favorites. I especially the twist about how Mabel finds out she has magic like Violet. The only thing I really disliked about it was the abrupt ending.

This is the sixth book in the Sister Magic series of books by Anne Mazer.

We've enjoyed reading the books in this series and I think our girls can relate to the relationship between Mabel and her mischievous little sister. Our youngest daughter is the same age as Mabel, but some of Mabel's schemes and worries make her quite precocious for an eight-year-old. Still, the way that she's becoming a bit more accepting of her sister's magical abilities is an interesting twist.

We liked that Mabel is learning about her own powers, even if they aren't exactly what she would've wanted.

Overall, it's a fun story and we enjoyed reading it together. This appears to be the last book in the series, and we are a bit disappointed, since we would've liked to have read more about these unusual sisters.

This book MABLE ON THE MOVE is a wonderful, interesting book. I Give the book five stars because it is so supising when Zoe hears mable is telling viloet to stop doing magic. nobody knew Vileot had magic exsept her sister Mable. A couple days after they went to a botanical gardens the four parents wanted to go to a special part so the four girls went to bugs. They went to all the bugs and finely they came to the last bug the dragonfly. vioet said she wanted to ride it. Mable said no. Then Mya said I want a icecraem sandwich so Zoe said yes. Then all of a suden. Mable said whats that fling in the air. It was Viloet fling the air on the dragonfly!!!!!!!!!!!!

I like Violet does magic in front of their cousins, but it's supposed to be a secret because her mom has a brother that had magic and he caused a lot of trouble with it. So Violet's mom doesn't want to talk, hear or say anything about magic.

I found this book REALLY interesting. I liked the fact the while family went on vacation with Mabel/Zoe and Violet/Mya. I found it really interesting how Mabel finds out she has magic too(continued from her piano recital). Even Zoe notes her inner magical potential!
