I actually liked this book and it kept my attention through out it. I wasn't a big fan of Wendy's but I like hearing about Maureen and Clint in the series of this set. Can't wait to read another one.

I hated this book! I only gave it one star because the writer's style was acceptable. It was the characters I hated, or to be more specific, I hated the lead female character. This is not a lovable person. You can't even relate to her unless you are a total bitch who is allowed to get away with everything because of an injury. And this mystery underlying reason for her bitchiness isn't revealed until the last chapter. And there was little development of the reason, just 'here it is, oh we all understand, the end. And I was like, "Like that's and excuse?!". I hated her! I had to scan read to finish this book. And all the other characters should have had enough spine to stand up to the bitch! Which the male lead did do eventually so there's one redeeming character for the book. This book was not worth the point to mooch it from BookMooch.com

Can I get a refund?!
