Mr. Mysterious J.A. Huss

Paxton Vance isn't as cryptic as he thinks. That broody nature and tough-guy exterior aren't fooling me one bit.

I know everything about him. I listen in on his most personal phone calls. I read his mail before he does. I even know what his mother got him for Christmas last year.

You're the man of my dreams, Paxton Vance. You just don't know it yet.

But don't worry, I'll remind you. I'm here to give you everything you need, before you know you need it.

So don't get defensive because I take a challenge seriously. You have to open up to someone, and that someone is me.

Besides, you can't stay Mr. Mysterious forever. Why play the game if you never want to win?

“One day I was great... Just doing my thing. And then.. this perfect fucking princess walked into my life.”

Mr. Mysterious is book 4 in Huss's Mister series. As this series continues, we find out more about what really happened that night with the Misters, the things that tie them together, and of course- in real Julie fashion, there are twists and turns along the way.

Paxton Vance is the guy in the group we don't know much about. He's labeled 'Mr. Mysterious' for a reason. The only person that knows a lot about Paxton is his mother. And Cinderella. Cinderella pops into his life when he least expects it. He may have no clue who she is, but she seems to know a heck of a lot about him.

“Paxton, do you always have to ask so many questions? Why are you so clueless? We are soulmates. Get it? This is fate slapping your face. I'm fate.”

?I loved the connection these two had and I absolutely loved Cindy. She's definitely my favorite heroine so far from this series. As much as I liked Vance, Cinderella totally stole the show. I love her persistence and drive. She was exactly the kind of woman a man like Pax needs. They were fantastic together.

My favorite thing about these books is how they always keep me guessing. There are always surprises, twists, turns and I never know what's going to happen. As things come together, everything fits like the perfect intricate puzzle. Each piece matters and goes perfectly with the one next to it.

Not only are these books sexy and suspenseful, they have a great element of friendship and family. The next book in this series, Mr. Match... OMFG. I can't even tell you how excited I am. I'm dying waiting for this one. DYING. This series has been one great book after the other. I can't wait to see how Julie concludes this series and how everything fits together in the end!

Julia's Book Haven says

This is probably my favourite of series so far. I loved Pax and Cindy, they were super cute and weird. I will say that the "mystery" is getting a little complicated and I'm not sure about where it's going but hopefully by the end of the series everything will make sense.

Looking forward to Olivier's story next, and now I'm hoping that the rest of the Strike sibling also get books. And if Five's thing doesn't get fixed in his book I'm going on record that I'll be pissssssssed lol

“You know who you are. What you’re doing. Where you’re going. And then a girl named Cinderella sends your whole world spinning.”

Once upon a time, there was this girl who decided to read this book called Tragic and ever since then she became obsessed. Yes, obsessed. You see, she decided to stalk the author. Who wouldn’t want to stalk an author named JA “Motherfucking” Huss. So fast forward to several books later, this girl once again became obsessed with another series that features five Misters. Yeah, think of it as J.A.’s version of Prince Charming. All different, unique, sexy, and appealing in their own way. Slowly, she was able to pair off the Misters to their fated Missus. With three misters living their own version of happily for now, JA decides it’s time to treat her readers to her own fairy tale version. So yeah, JA “Motherfucking” Huss had to put her signature stamp of brilliance of unexpected surprises and twist and turns. Hence, Mr. Mysterious got his own Disney ending, well not exactly but he did end up with Cinderella. Cinderella Shrike, to be exact so you can’t say that JA didn’t give you a fairy tale ending. It’s just Mr. Mysterious is a different kind of Prince Charming and this Cinderella, is no damsel in distress. Instead she is a bomb. Baby Bomb, to be exact.

Paxton Vance aka Mr. Mysterious isn’t as mysterious as he thinks. Well, not really since Cinderella Shrike was able to dig inside information on Pax. Well, more like she stalked Paxton Vance. Why would she do that? Cinderella was obsessed with Pax and that’s putting it mildly. She already knew that they were meant to be. He was her Prince Charming and he just needed the right push and direction...towards her. She didn’t need him to rescue her but instead this Cinderella wanted to be the one to rescue him. •

“And she’s not going to fade away, you guys. She’s not a fade-away kind of girl. She’s going to fight. You have no idea how much fight that girl has.”

Cinderella initiated contact with Paxton. She made sure Pax was well aware of who she is. Well not really, she did leave the tidbit out that she was Oliver Shrike’s baby sister. While leaving out some important details, she was able to challenge Paxton and seduce him with her witty and sassy personality. And of course, Pax couldn’t help but be drawn to her bombshell sexual appeal. He was intrigued by Cinderella. She was sexy, smart, badass, and of course mysterious. It was like for the first time, he met someone who understood him emotionally, physically and sexually. Their connection was electric. It was pulsating, radiating, and brimming with an abundance of lust, passion and love.

“He fixes things. He hides the dirt, sweeps it under the rug, and makes everything go away. But his own problem has never been fixed. Never cleaned up. And he hates the fact that he has put that smudge on his mother’s pristine family name.”

In the backdrops of their sexual escapades, Paxton and the rest of the Misters were still trying to figure out who is after and targeting them. Pieces of the puzzle begins to unravel when mysterious envelopes were being delivered to their specific recipients. But what happens when danger begins to not only threaten Paxton but also Cinderella? Will Paxton be able to save his Sugar Princess? And of course, how will Oliver Shrike react when he discovers his best friend is in a relationship with his baby sister? Will Paxton be forced to choose between his best friend or his girl?

Mr. Mysterious was just perfect. This book was a sexy blend of intrigue, suspense, passion, and of course had JA's signature stamp of the unexpected. From the opening page to the very last page, Julie delivered a story that was highly entertaining. With her sexy prose, Julie held us hostage as readers are thrown into a whirlwind of mystery as we try to discover and see the bigger picture. While romance was still in the forefront, Julie still maintained the suspense and mystery aspect of each installment as pieces of the puzzle comes into light. There was nothing that I would change about this fourth installment. The characters were a riot and each played their integral part in the story line. But I will admit, I have major love for Paxton, Cinderella, Oliver, Ford and Ariel. So if you are looking for story that has a symphony of heat, passion, mystery, and a riot of entertainment then Mr. Mysterious might be the book for you but I would highly recommend you to pick up the rest up of the Misters. Why settle for one Mister when you can have them all?

“Prince Charming is gonna deliver the fairy tale to his sweet-smelling Cinderella. Whether she wants it or not.”

And by the way, JA Huss endings are way better than the Disney's happily ever after because in this fairytale ending, Cinderella doesn't need a glass slipper but instead she just need Mr. Mysterious' magical tongue and appendage.

5 “Hear me, see me, know me.” STARS

Damn, this was just...

I'm a live-wire, raw, alive and volatile right now. I really enjoyed this one. I'd been counting down the days for Mr. Mysterious. I'd wanted Paxton Vance from the get-go. And in true Julie fashion, she surprised me! Gave me what I fucking wanted and I didn't even know it! I had visions of this dark, mysterious, broody man who was smart as a whip and sharp. I got all that but also a man who has a heart. He loves and respects his mother and has had his world shit on and turned upside down. Mr. Mysterious was exactly what I wanted!

But who stole my fucking heart? Cinderella Shrike!! Yes, I'll admit that I've a serious soft spot for anything Shrike. Spence and his Bomb are just THE bomb. And Cindy...I FLOVED her! She was hilarious, fiery, smart and all-get-out sexy. I must declare, I have a new book girlfriend.

I was a goner for the fact that Julie brought in the Shrikes, Ford and fucking Five has been sprinkled throughout this entire series. And she even leaves bread crumbs about some serious shit concerning one of the Shrike progeny that's left me hankering for answers! Like STAT!!

Pax and Cindy were sides of the same coin. And they'd alternate between playing the mysterious one or the 'play-it straight' one. These two were fantastic together!

And of course, it wouldn't be a JA Huss book if this story wasn't seriously twisted. It left me with more questions than before. I'm in desperate need of some answers. Julie, I'm totally one hot mess and so ready for Mr. Match. Game on! Well done, well done!

BEFORE READING

HOLY!! From the onset of the Misters series, I knew which Mister I wanted.

Mr. Mysterious!!

He's finally here. Mysterious, here I come!!

4.5 mysterious stars!

This review is going to have to be vague because the mystery of the misters continues to unfold. We'll start with Paxton..

Mr. mysterious doesn't fall in love. Everyone knows the only woman he's ever loved is his mother. Paxton is a "fixer" he fixes people's problems..whatever that may be. He never even sees Cinderella coming.

Cinderella..

Nope..def not this Cinderella ..

More this this Cinderella ...

Cinderella shrike. (The best lastname ever). Cindy has been in love with Paxton..and full out stalking him to complete her fairy tale ending; however, She leaves out the minor detail of her last name she Pax doesn't know she's the baby bomb..aka the baby sister of Oliver Shrike (mr. Match).

That's actually all I'm going to disclose plot wise..I want to be super careful not to spoil anything..but all I'll say is the plot continues to thicken and we learn more about "that night" and the secrets behind it.

J. A. Huss is on my list of top 3 authors. I love her writing..I love her mysteries..twists and turns..and the sexy scenes! Damn that woman knows how to write a sex scene!

I wasn't a huge fan of cindys stalker instalove tendencies or the fact that Pax fell for her so quickly ..but I still completely loved it.

When I first started reading the mister series, I thought mysterious would be our grand finale because he was the most..mysterious. So bring on Oliver Shrike "mr. Match"!!!!

5 Am I a Mrs. to a Mister Stars

I'll never understand why I'm surprised when I read a book by JA Huss. The woman is a genius. I'm pretty sure she would be the evil villain in a superhero comic or Disney movie or whatever. She creates a world you want to live in with people you wish you could know. You want to sink yourself into every single book she puts out and never leave. I know I can't be the only one who thinks this way, can I?

So, obviously this is a 5-star read for me, as is most of Huss's work. But there is something about Mr. Mysterious that pulled me in and left me wanting more. We heard of him back when we met Mr. Perfect, but we didn't really see him until Mr. Romantic hit the scene. He just kept becoming more and more important. And with the events that unfold in his story, it's clear that he may play a bigger role in that fateful night ten years ago than anyone could have ever guessed.

Or maybe he didn't. Maybe it's all a crazy set-up. Some revenge scheme that hasn't quite worked out as planned. Who knows. What I do know is that Paxton Vance has finally--finally--met his match with Cindy Shrike.

That's right. Shrike. You heard me. Shrike, as in Spencer--swoon-- Shrike's baby girl. Cindy knows all about Paxton Vance. She should, she's been stalking him for years. What started as a childhood crush very quickly becomes an obsession. But let's go back to Spencer. WTF is Pax thinking?! Why in the hell would he hook up with a Shrike girl?

"And since you've never met Spencer Shrike, I'll just tell you right now, you do not fuck with that guy. He comes off all sweet and charming, but don't let him fool you. Mr. Shrike knows his way around a gun." Five looks at me from the corner of his eye. "And a murder charge."

Needless to say, I was more than a little excited at the sheer mention of Spencer. He is, after all, my first Huss love. And the fact he had babies with Bomb and then they named them after Disney princesses...well, let's just say he's always going to be my favorite alpha.

Cindy infiltrates Pax's life. First she is the sandwich delivery girl, then she's the surfer girl, the stalker girl, the girl who never goes away. She is persistent and sassy and everything I remember about her mother. She's a fucking bombshell--just ask Pax.

"You're definitely the bombshell version of a Disney princess."

After getting to know the other Misters, we all know that Pax had his very own role in that night that brought them all together. But what was that role? What did Pax do to land him with a rape charge at the ripe old age of 21? And why is everything coming back now? First Perfect, Romantic, Corporate, and now Mysterious. Is 10 some magic number? What does this outside force want from these men? What did it want from those college students 10 years ago. And how do the women play into it? Nothing really seems to happen to these guys until they find that special someone.

JA Huss has woven this magical, realistic world where anything can happen. If you have read her Rook and Ronin series, then you know--you just know--that she is going to blow your mind when this is all over. The truth will come out and it's going to be something no one has ever thought of. It always is with Huss. I've learned that I can guess all day long, but in the end I'm always wrong. And I'm okay with that. It isn't every day someone can hand me a book and completely throw me for a loop. I love that about a Huss book.

Oh, and there's sex. Some super hot sex. You know, in case you thought this whole book was about that rape charge from 10 years ago. It's not. I mean it is, but it's not.

"Suck my cock, take it down your throat, swallow me. And then I'm gonna fuck you until you scream."

"If you talk. If you say one word, I will lose control and this will not be anything like I've imagined it."

Cindy is the kind of woman I want to be. Or I'd at least like to be friends with her. I still have my heart set on being Ivy so I can get it on with Romantic. ;-)) These men and their women have won me over. I can't believe this ride is almost finished. As excited as I am to see it all play out, I'm also sad that Match is the only book left. However, Match is bound to be fucking epic so there's that.

Hear me. See me. Know me.

So let's just get this out of the way, shall we?

Every JA Huss Book surprises the heck out of me, blah blah blah blah, I should have learned by now that nothing is ever as it seems!

Mr. Mysterious is the fourth standalone in the Misters Series and although books one through four can all be read independently and in any order, Mr. Match (book five, out in December) is the conclusion to the FULL story that we've been getting crumbs of throughout this journey.

Ten years ago five college students were accused of rape. Ten years ago the woman pointing the finger was dead and all charges were dropped. Ten years ago, Mr. Match made a call and Five strolled in with a plan and instructions to shut. The. Fuck. Up. Ten years later, three Misters have been paired with the Misses of their dreams and their pasts are coming back to fuck them up. Now it's time for Mr. Mysterious to meet his Mrs. and to wait and see what is coming his way.

Can I just freak out about baby-bomb? OMG. I love, love, love that this is who ends up with Paxton. Cinderella "Cindy" Shrike is all grown up and she knows exactly what she wants. The man that she's been obsessed with since she was a teenager. But Cindy is ALL grown up and is ready to get her Mister.

Paxton Vance was a breath of fresh air. What I expected was this dark and dangerous man (see James) and what I got was this guy who had his whole life turned upside down by some false charges and never fully gets to escape what he was accused of. But once Cindy stalks into his life and makes herself at home, Pax is given a chance at something bigger than what he has. Something more than just an old charge, a dead girl and a mystery of what has haunted these five men for the last ten years.

JA Huss gives us more clues to what is at the center of all of this, but still holds every card close. Whatever you thought was happening, HA! What a joke, not even close. Everything you think is going to happen? YOU HAVE NO IDEA.

For fans of this author, fans who have read ALL the books, you are going to love the little nuggets we get. From the mentions of Ford, Spencer, Ronin and all the FANCY FUCKS your little heart desires, you will be in Huss heaven.

I can't wait for Mr. Match's book. I can't wait to see this man, to see how he compares to his father. How hard he's going to fall for his Mrs and how much hell he and his TEAM are going to rain down on whoever is behind all of it.

Mr. Mysterious is the fourth book in the Mister series and definitely my favorite so far. I am all about the Rook and Ronin series so naturally, I was all about Cinderella Shrike.

Since I absolutely loved Cindy I will start with her. Cindy pretty much stole my heart from the beginning with her hilarious stalking and awkward encounters. I was laughing out loud at the dialogue and the way she hunted down Paxton. I felt like Cindy owned this story and I just wanted more of her. She was determined you have to love a girl who goes after what she wants.

Paxton, Mr. Mysterious, is just that mysterious, but his sleuth ways were nothing for our girl Cindy. She blew his mind with just how much she knew about him and definitely kept him on his toes. Like I said, these two are easily my favorite. Their banter was top notch and I couldn't wait to see what would happen next because with Cindy you never know.

As you know Huss's books completely keep you guessing and keep a curious reader like me eager to turn the page. With each book, the series gets more involved and the story gets deeper and deeper. I will be honest with you, it's a lot to keep up with and I hope this last book really ties everything together. While I am all about the love story this book also has a lot of twists and turns, so fingers crossed for an epic ending.

We are so close to the end! One more book and we will finally learn what the heck is going on. This book brought more answers as well as more puzzles. I loved Pax and Cindy. I was actually expecting Pax to be darker, what with the name Mr. Mysterious, but this one was actually really funny. I loved how crazy Cindy was and how she just took over Pax's life. However, I am incredibly sad about a piece of information you learn in this one and it doesn't even involve one of the Misters so I'll leave it at that. The countdown begins for the final book in the series! ARC provided by author.

J. Grayland says

This is the fourth book in the Mr. series and follows the action packed romance between Mr. Mysterious Paxton Vance and his best friend's baby sister Cinderella (Yep that really is her annoying name) and she has some weird stalkerish behaviour to go with it. This book continues with the mystery surrounding the Misters and brings in the other characters from the previous books. I do really like this series its hot sex, romance, action and mystery rolled into one and the characters are very likable. The story line is intriguing but this can't be read as a stand alone book you really need to read the others in the series from the beginning or you just get lost in the story line. Narrated by the brilliant talent of Elena Wolfe and Sebastian York.

Mr. Mysterious is yummy! Paxton is my favorite Mr. so far. I enjoyed the playful banter between him and Cinderella so much. They definitely win the cutest couple award, in my opinion.

This book took a turn I didn't anticipate and I frackin' loved it. I feel like we're getting somewhere now and I'm beyond excited to see how the story ends!

Although my reviews for this series are varied, J. A. Huss has a new fan! Her writing, vibrant characters, and intriguing plots are brilliant. I've been thoroughly entertained by these books and look forward to reading more of her work in future.

Audiobook Review: The audiobook is narrated by a Dream of performers. It was perfect! Highly recommended.

4.5 Mysterious Stars

SO so many things are happening in this book, I love me some Mr. Perfect.. but Mr. Mysterious sure gives him a run for his money for being my favorite of the Misterys.

So many questions I had, and still have but so much also gets answered! I am in shock right now, this book had me sucked in from the first page to the last one.

Paxton has always been a character I wanted to get to know better. I don't know that we get to know him, that well but he sure puts his heart on his sleeve in this book.

I really enjoyed getting to know his mother in this book you can tell they are close. She is a little bit of a mystery as well. It's no wonder Pax is the way he is.

When Cinderella aka Cindy comes in to the picture, she catches his eye right away. He wants to know more about her. So he goes about that.

Cinderella, has had a crush on Paxton from about the age of 13. She took it upon herself early to investigate him and the other Misterys. She has had her father study bugged at the age of 13 so when the charges came she is in the know. Only no one knows she is... She is a sneaky one. I would even go to say even more Mysterious than Pax's.

But I think what I liked is that he knows she isn't who she says but he is ok to have his head buried in the sand.

He pursues her pretty hard but it's kind of the same with her. I loved this, he chases her but really it was her plan all along.

“I'm just a girl who saw your picture on the news and got obsessed. OK? And yeah, it's weird, and wrong, and creepy. But I'm really not any of those things. I swear it. I'm just a girl who likes a guy.”

Things sure come to a head and we find out some key pieces in the Misterys story and no I am not going to give away the good stuff!

Read the book it's so good, if you had questions in the last few books some of those questions get answered and things become clearer ... but not totally answered.. Can't wait for the next Mister BOOK!!

You don't have to like my review but its 100% my opinion, and I am allowed to have it.

Arabella ~?AB?~ says

★★★ 3.5 Stars ★★★

Number four in the series, Mr Mysterious AKA Paxton Vance finds himself embroiled in a lustful affair with a mystery woman named Cinderella.

Cindy knows everything about Pax, she is his very own stalker, and she wants him for herself and won't stop at anything to get her prize.

Pax has been a complete mystery throughout this series, and finally we get to know the real him- he was nothing like what I was expecting, he was gentle and caring, a mummy's boy, and a normal everyday guy, a complete opposite to his mysterious badass persona.

My main disconnect was the insta-love and the many, many secrets that are starting to get revealed, and to be honest, I didn't know whether I was coming or going! This book was crazy, which is not necessarily a bad thing, I still enjoyed it and I can't wait for all the loose ends to come together.

Whilst this was my least favourite of the series, it sets us up perfectly for the last book - Mr Match, who just so happens to be the son of one of my favourite ever book heroes, Spencer Shrike.

Mr Mysterious can be read as a standalone, but it is part of an ongoing story arc. Told from dual POV.
