Book Seven of the bestselling Fallen Immortals series

START with KISS OF A DRAGON (Book 1)

LEKSANDER

I am a Dragon Prince of the House of Smoke... and I am in love with the wrong woman. I never meant to fall for an angeling. And I wasn't supposed to have the duty of fulfilling a ten-thousand-year-old treaty to protect humanity. But now I'm trapped between the immutable facts of magic and the irresistible force of my love. When a fae queen offers unparalleled sex and an unprecedented renewal of the treaty, the temptation is substantial. If only the prospect didn't leave me hollow inside...

ERELAH

I am Protector class, Chastity faction—an angeling whose sworn duty and greatest joy is protecting humanity. The House of Smoke is likewise a guardian, and their prince is one of my oldest friends. Any angeling worth her wings would struggle with the Sin of Envy to take my place. But they know not of Leksander's stubbornness in refusing his duty to mate and produce a dragonling. How hard can it be to win a human's heart? I would give my life if it would help. All depends upon this...

He must win her heart or finally let her go. Her vow of Chastity means she's never known love. Either they'll save the mortal and immortal worlds with a Love that is True... or they'll bring a Fall like the world has never seen.

This is more like it! I'm really enjoying Leksander and Erelah's story, and their forbidden love. I was always intrigued by the angels, as I've never read a book featuring them before and they've been portrayed in the first six books as really ethereal and magical, and I feel as though that portrayal has really continued throughout this book. I loved learning more about the different angel kingdoms and the way their lives work, and have also enjoyed reading from Leksander's perspective, as I feel as though he isn't as typical-hot-alpha-guy as his brothers. I'm looking forward to seeing where their story goes, even though I'm fairly sure I have an idea!

Jane says

The first two Princes of the House of Smoke have found true love in their mates and both have new dragonling sons. To complete the terms of the treaty the third brother, Leksander needs to find his true love, mate and produce a baby dragonling. His problem is he already loves but loving an angel, Erelah who is incapable of loving him back will not fill the terms of the treaty. When Leksander reveals his true love his angle and acts on it, she falls into the shadows.

Loved by a Dragon ends with his Angel Erleah with black wings of a fallen Angel and looking for a new way of life. I am ready for the next part of the story and hope for a happier ending for Leksander and Erelah.

Sheila Walker says

The question is not if she will ever love him its can she ever love him

Oh boy what a pickle Laksander is in he has to find a mate to fulfil the treaty but he's in love with a angeling Erelah who hasn't a clue what love is. The hardest part of reviewing this book is trying to let you know how good or bad the story is well it's a sad lovely exciting story " how to win the heart of an angeling " the summer queen wants him in her bed, but that's a no go from him he tried a dating site but didn't turn up, he even asked advice from his sister in law Rosalyn but somehow someway he had to do it himself, he saved her from the summer queen then healed her yet again, giving more of his dragon blood which stirred an inner feeling she didn't understand, until, too late and her beautiful white wings turned black and she became a fallen angel, now the question is can he save her again. Highly recommend

Lilly Mitchell says

I love this series so much! Dragons and angelings, who knew it could be so difficult. The treaty needs to be renewed to protect mankind from all the things that go bump in the night and the other two brothers have found their mates of true love leaving only one to fulfill the terms of the renewal. That could be a problem. Leksander is in love with an Angeling and to make matters a bit more difficult she has taken a vow of chastity. Two dragonlings have been safely brought into the world and the entire immortal world is impatiently waiting for the third to be created. Ms Woods has an uncanny way to mix the world of fantasy with a bit of reality that will have you looking at those around you in a whole new way. Awesome series and well worth your time to Read. This one is very different from the others but quite enjoyable even without all the overt hotness.

I loved it!!! Such a strong beginning to the delicious trilogy that will end the incredible Fallen Immortals Series.

I love Erelah she is strength and beauty and power and her anguish is excruciating.

Leksander so tormented by his love for the unattainable.

The incredible interesting characters bring forth an exciting and demanding world that doesn't let up.

All up a really great read cannot wait for the next two installments!!!

Sammy Loves Books says

Finally, Leksander's love story!!

Leksander the dragon prince has loved Erelah for decades. He is tortured daily working by her side, admiring her beauty and innocence as they fight demons.

His heart is breaking and time is running out. He has to find a mate and produce a child in order to renew a 10,000 year old treaty.

Unfortunately Erelah's an angel and she thinks of Leksander as as a friend. She says she would die for him but cannot love him.

What a cliffhanger!

Whether you have followed the series or not, this is a MUST read! Bonus being, you CAN start here. Rollercoaster of a ride emotionally with an ending that leaves you desperate for the next installment. Not to be missed, blend of Dragonkind, Angeling and Fae, True Love, desire and longing.

Lisa says

This is probably the brother of the series I've been anticipating the most. Poor Leksander - he's in love with the angeling Erelah, a half human/angel hybrid, who doesn't know of his feelings nor does she understand what it is to love. Erelah has taken a vow of chastity and wants to help her friend Leksander find his mate. Leksander knows his duty to fulfill the treaty, but can't move forward because of his deep love for Erelah. Fortunately (or unfortunately) the summer fae queen makes Leksander an offer that his heart may not be able to handle.

I appreciated getting to know more about Erelah in this book; what draws Leksander to her; why is he so devoted? So her background and their relationship details coming to the forefront was good to read. I was totally shocked by the ending... Alisa Woods knows how to end a story, but keep me coming back for more. I cannot wait to find out what happens next consider... (can't divulge spoilers!)

Thoughts: I could not wait to start this story, I've been looking forward to Leksander and Erelah ever since I met them in book one! It's one of those, you know they end up together, but how it's going to come together is a complete mystery. And since this is just part 1 of 3 for their story, there's still no clue how it's going to work out. I LOVE IT!! As much as I love HEA's, for me it's the journey to the HEA that is way more interesting, and this one is definitely interesting. It felt like I only read 3 pages and it was done, I was so engrossed in the story. I'm kinda glad I read this as an ebook, I might have ripped pages in my haste to turn the page (and that would've totally upset me lol). Grab this series as soon as you can. How can you go wrong with hot dragon shifters looking for mates?

Please note that I received a complimentary copy of this work and chose to write a review.

Love these Books!!!

First of all, Leonidas has been cursed by a witch so as he cannot love another. Then he falls totally in love with Roslyn, a witch whose never practiced her powers. Her father hexed her mother, for having an affair... O my. Leonidas wyvern comes out but oddly his mind remains human/dragin. Rosalyn helps him break the curse. Finally, she and Leonidas make a dragonling with true love and magic only to find out both mommy and dragonling are demon infected. Rosalyn makes the heartbreaking decision to have Erelah use her blade to exorcise the demon.... I was holding back the tears at this point. I couldn't turn the pages fast enough!! There's so much more I want to say but I'll ruin this wonderful read for others if I share anymore. I so love these books!

Leksander & Erelah.???

For him, A hundred years of heartbreaking wanting.

For her, Minutes to become a Fallen Angel, one of the Shadows, broken.....??

An engaging, page turning, falling into, wonderful tale of a Dragon's love for a hybrid, angel/human and, oh! so much more.

Loving it more & more with each book I read in this series, written by Ms Alisa Woods, whom to me is a very new author.

"Fallen Immortals" are the only book's I've read by her, and am looking forward to reading more.

Need to start reading Bk8, "Marked by a Dragon" like now!

Welcome to my want/need to read list Ms Wood's.

Highly recommended.?????

Spoilers!

Whoa okay, where to start. There are big things happening in this book with Leksander being a dragon shifter and Erelah being an angeling. I've been interested in their relationship because they're both hella powerful, Erelah more so, and because of the unrequited love aspect of their relationship. It was obvious Erelah cared deeply for Leksander, but it was never a sexual thing. For him, it was a very sexual thing, BUT he cared for her immensely at the same time. It took the treaty falling on Leksander, the last dragon prince who has to have a dragonling to renew it, to finally let his feelings for Erelah be known. It was a disaster.

I'll admit I haven't read a lot of angel fiction, but the whole concept of the virtues versus the sins etc. is something pretty ingrained in the society I grew up in. It was interesting to explore those concepts through Erelah. I loved her naivety through it all. Alisa did a good job of making her feel like a "pure" angel. She feels other, not quite human. This book is breaking into that part of her, though. I'm sure we'll see her become more and more human until the last book.

The ending of this book was really stressful! Leksander and Erelah kiss, nothing more, but all of their feelings are thrown out into the open and Erelah falls. FALLS. There's no better way to break the righteous angel's soul than to make her fall. Leksander feels horrible about it, but the deed is done. That's how this first book in their trilogy ended. Now I'm really curious about all the angel politics and where it will all lead.

I feel bad for anyone who had to wait to read the next book. I like to binge everything I read, so I'm starting the second book right this second.

bookaholic ge says

LEKSANDER has been in love with Erelah for years and has spent every moment hoping that she will notice. Now that he has to fulfill his part of the treaty he can't help but wish that Erelah would notice just how he feels ERELAH cares very deeply for Leksander and has always thought of him as her best friend. She can never see him as more because as an angel she has never experienced love and does not understand how it feels.

The real question is can Leksander convince Erelah to take a chance at love with him...risking everything that she holds dear? Read and find out!

I voluntarily read an advanced reviewers copy of this book

This book is hands down is the best book in the series!

I waited patiently for this story and I loved every second of this book. I loved the emotions that Leksander and Erelah displayed for each other and their overall relationship. It was interesting to see their happy moments and heartbreaking to see their unhappy moments.

This is probably the only book in this series that has brought me to tears. It made me want to hold both of them and tell them that everything will be ok. Honestly...it was beautiful...great job Alisa Woods, somehow you made me love dragon romances!
