Perseverance in Gratitude: A Socio-Rhetorical Commentary on the Epistle to the Hebrews: Socio-rhetorical Commentary on Hebrews David A. deSilva

This commentary is the first to fully apply the resources of socio-rhetorical analysis to Hebrews. Insights into the cultural and social world of the audience are combined with analysis of the author's rhetorical strategy and ideology to create a rich, three-dimensional reading that helps unravel key issues in the interpretation of the epistle. David deSilva's reflections on application concluding each section also make his commentary valuable to seminarians and pastors seeking to make Hebrews relevant to today's world.

Paul Seville says

Desilva provides an amazing insight into the socio-rhetorical components of what is normally a difficult book of the Bible. Hebrews is unpacked in great detail so that its literary skill and theological depth are revealed. This commentary is the first I have fallen in love with, and so it has done its work so that I have fallen in love with the book of Hebrews, and Jesus all over again.

Ideal for theological students and preachers. A most compelling argument for the renewed study and use of the art of persuasion.
