Alexia says

"His Million - Dollar Marriage Proposal" by Jennifer Hayward will keep you entertained from start to finish. This is part of a series but can also be a read alone book. Chiara Ferrante wants to keep her Father's bakery going but having two jobs isn't quite working out for her financially. Lazzero Di Fiore needs a fake fiancée so he entices Chiara into taking the job with the promise of helping her family get out of debt. What starts out as pretend turns into something more.

Geraldine Sadiku says

Excellent read with a strong hero and heroine that can stand up to him.

Sherry Bohrmueller says

If you love a fairy tale romance, this book is for you. I loved the plot to this story. It's one of those stories you wish would happen to you. The story unfolds just the way you think it should and you get your HEA. Love these kind of books.

Lazzero Di Fiore needs to find the perfect woman to accompany him to a big event all so he can secure the most important deal of his life. However, Chiara is the only woman suitable for the job since she won't think there's more to their relationship than what it is – fake. Besides, she needs the money he's offering, so shouldn't their deal be a win-win for both? Yet, the more time they spend together, the more Chiara finds herself doing the one thing she shouldn't – falling in love with Lazzero. Will the pair achieve their happy ever after or will Chiara be left with a broken heart? Read More

Lazzero Di Fiore needs a fake fiancée, one who will believably ward off the attentions of an ex now married to the potential business partner he needs to woo. Chiara Ferrante's full life doesn't allow for dating, and her previous experiences have led her to be quite wary of those slick, wealthy business types anyway. When Lazzero orders yet another perfectly made espresso during one of her shifts and offers her a stunning engagement ring to boot, she immediately refuses, but his offer to help out her father's ailing business convinces her to hear him out.

Jennifer Hayward's His Million-Dollar Marriage Proposal is a well-written take on the fake-relationship story. Chiara and Lazzero do share a simmering attraction that boils over during their week-long masquerade. Ms Hayward makes their journey and emotions fresh and exciting.

Will be looking for her stories about the other Di Fiore brothers :)

This is the second book in this series and again MS Hayward has brought the characters to life on the pages, making them real people with real feelings and emotions, she brings out their strengths and insecurities and also took me on a fabulous trip from New York to gorgeous Milan and left this reader a very happy reader.

Lazzero Di Fiore runs a sports clothing and accessories company with his brother Santo, they have worked hard building this empire with passion and Lazzero will go to any lengths to make it bigger and when the opportunity arises for a chance to make it bigger he needs a fake fiancé to take to Milan with him, someone who understands that love and marriage are not what he wants that it will be a business deal only and who better than his favourite barista.

Chiara Ferrante is a barista a very good one, she works hard to help her father keep his bakery going and that is a struggle and she has been hurt badly before from one of "the suits" as she calls them men of money and top lifestyles, she is convinced she will never be part of that world, but when Lazzero makes an offer she can't refuse that will help her father, she steps back into that world determined to keep her eyes wide open this time and her heart.

This story moves fast and is fabulous I just loved both Lazzero and Chiara a couple made in heaven as far as I am concerned, Chiara is strong and feisty but also vulnerable because of what she has been through and Lazzero what can I say I want him, he is so loving, thoughtful and shows such passion. This is a sensual moving story that should not be missed I highly recommend and I look forward to Santo's story. MS Hayward knows how to make a reader feel part of the story thank you.

I really enjoyed this book. The hero and heroine were genuinely nice people, and the story about the fake engagement was pretty good fun, with Cinderella overtones. It was a win win all around.

4 1/2 STARS!

Fast paced, flirty and delightful! With the next book in The Powerful Di Fiore Tycoons series, we get to watch Lazzero fall head over heels for the woman least likely to be by his side at a luxurious event. She's tough as nails, but he can't resist her sensitive side. He's all business, but the man beneath the suit is irresistible! I really liked them together. Their relationship developed really quickly, but it was quite entertaining.

Lazzero Di Fiore will do just about anything to take the empire he has built with his brothers to the next level of success ... even put a ring on a virtual stranger's finger! He needs a make-believe fiancée and the woman who has been delighting him on a daily basis for months now seems like an ideal choice!

Barista Chiara Ferrante has a personal grudge against the entitled lifestyle of extremely wealthy people, so when Lazzero first approaches her with his request, she's adamantly against it ... until she finds out he will save her father's bakery from financial ruin for just a few days of time. How can she refuse?

The second book in a series but can be read alone, however you will be waiting impatiently for the next one. Ms. Hayward excels in writing stories that will draw you in and keep you in that warm fuzzy romance mood till the last page. We meet Chiara Ferrante, a wonderful daughter trying to keep her father's bakery open after financial problems. Mornings she works as a barista and evenings working in the bakery but unless something happens she fears he will go bankrupt. Every morning she fixes Lazzero Di Fiore's coffee just perfect until one stressful morning she adds sugar. Lazzero understands stress as he runs his business of the world's hottest athletic wear Supersonic but has a problem he is working on deal which should be easy except it is with the husband of his ex Carolina, who still wants him. Solution, another business deal he will help Chiara with her father's financial problems if she wears his ring and goes to Italy with him. Will she accept, knowing she has some feelings for Lazzero? Not giving anymore away but can say it is one of the best books I have read.

HIS MILLION DOLLAR MARRIAGE PROPOSAL by author Jennifer Hayward is a July 2018 release by Harlequin Presents series.

Lazzero Di Fiore was in need of a fake fiancée so he asks his local barista Chiara for help and offers to recompense her for her time. Chiara was in urgent need of money so she accepts Lazzero's offer. But she didn't know that the chemistry between them would lead them to give in to their passions and she would fall in love with him.

What would happen now? Would Lazzero commit to his fake fiancée?

HIS MILLION DOLLAR MARRIAGE PROPOSAL is a romance filled with emotions and drama. Author Jennifer Hayward brought this story to life on the pages where a reader would sympathize with Chiara and Lazzero yet root for them too.

Highly recommended for all readers of romance.

Vickie says

This installment of The Di Fiore Tycoons series begins with Lazzero Di Fiore needing to close a huge deal with a competitor company. He's promised his Board, so now, he needs to make it happen. The problem? Said competitor is married to one of Lazzero's exes, who just so happens to still be in love with him.

When he enters his favorite coffee house, and spots Chiara, he starts to formulate a plan. As he overhears Chiara's take on wealthy businessmen, he decides that she'd be perfect for what he has in mind: her to accompany him to Europe posing as his fiancé. Chiara isn't looking for a relationship and Lazarro surely isn't either. He's more of a 'love 'em and leave 'em happy' kind of guy.

Chiara, who is in need of money to help her father, accepts Lazarro's offer. What neither of them counted on was the growing attraction that has been there for about as long as he's been coming into the coffee shop. However, when past loves emerge and secrets are revealed, they both have some serious soul searching to do.....

His Million-Dollar Marriage Proposal is another wonderfully written story by Jennifer Hayward. The characters are engaging and pull you in from the beginning. Chiara's emotions are beautifully written and her stubbornness, along with her underlying vulnerability, will have readers falling in love with her. Lazarro has more going on that initially meets the eye. Damaged by his parents' disaster of a marriage, your heart will ache reading his reasons for being so guarded with his heart. But, when the two come together, the chemistry leaps off the page. If you're not reading Hayward's works, you're sorely missing out. Well done, Jennifer Hayward!! Very, very well done! I can't wait for the next one.....

Lazzero is working hard on securing a big deal for the family company. In order to do so he needs to be seen as settled down. The only problem is that Lazzero doesn't do commitment. He needs someone that won't expect anything from him. Chiara is a barista working at The Daily Grind. No time for fun Chiara is all work no play. Lazzero is attracted to the beautiful barista. Chiara fed up of being hit upon by customers. Seems the perfect candidate for the job. The chemistry between these two is sizzling. As they spend time together Chiara sees a different side to him and starts to fall in love with him. i loved the epilogue so swoon worthy.
