Not a Girl Chris Donaldson

Not A Girl is a collection of fourteen short stories reflecting aspects of the world that have always inspired or disturbed author Chris. They are an eclectic mix of high adventure, horror and science fiction. While some of the tales are rooted firmly in a world the reader will recognise, others are set in stranger places. Some near, some far. All dark. Not A Girl is an unsettling collection of short stories that will appeal to fans of horror, sci-fi and speculative fiction.

Not a Girl by Chris Donaldson

Very impressed with the style of writing. I particularly liked The Air Race, The scent of Elsewhere and The Blue.

Each story has a different voice and tone, depending on the characters.

There is one truly horrific story, some will make you dream of the world they depict, while others will make you ponder on your life and on the world!

I am not sure what else to say beyond: Give it a try, you will be entertained.
