M.M. Strawberry Reviews says

Not for the first time am I reminded of the show Full House when these stories feature Karen's relationship with her big sister. Uh oh, she takes something of Kristy's without asking and then loses it! The story goes as one would expect for a BSC Little Sister book, this is one of the ones where Karen was pretty bratty.

Victoria Fry says

"I read it in a comfy chair at the library." Written when I was seven years old. :)
