An Autobiography of George Washington Edith Ellis , Caroline Myss (Foreword)

Scribe Edith Ellis met the spirit of George Washington one evening in 1955. He contacted her from the Other Side to ask if she would serve as a channel so that he could dictate his autobiography for his "fellow American Patriots," believing that he had kept his personal feelings about his life far too private. Edith agreed, although she was nearly blind and in her mid-70s. So began a most extraordinary partnership between Edith Ellis and the "Founding Father of America." The result is this remarkable book that has taken more than 60 years to reach the public. This book is a must-read for everyone who feels the spirit of the Founding Fathers surrounding us again.

This was published by Caroline Myss. It is a channelled book. Caroline explains about books that are channelled.

You will fall in love with George. He really did love the United States.

A great History book. Well written.

Barbara Rose, RN, RMT, INHC says

I loved this book. It is engaging, well-written and very inspiring. In June I listened to Myss' "Sacred Contract of America" again. Myss mentioned this book and "Return of the Revolutionaries" which I also read. Next, I wish to share why the timing of this book is important.

Each January I meditate on my word or words to guide my journey. My "chosen" the words for 2018 were "Sacred Contract". I was not sure why!

After reading this book I believe: I/ we the people, must not give up on America, or, on the Founding & Guiding Principles of our country. As such, I hold them in my heart. And, I will Be all I can be; Be Compassionate in my actions; and Connect with the energies of our "Founding Fathers" especially Washington, Adams, and Franklin....???

FYI: My book was published in 2005 by CMED Publishing Company, Oak Park, Illinois. 380 pages
