Come for a visit to Karsten Field

A man on the brink of self-destruction, Allan Howarth is unhappy in work, in marriage, in family. He is stressed by finances and relationship problems.

A letter from a forgotten friend invites Allan to Karsten Field. Allan suddenly finds his life changing in ways he could never imagine. His faith is challenged and renewed.

When Allan thinks he finally found the perfect life, he is at risk of losing it all.

Will his last chance finally set him free?

Thank you for this beautiful and inspirational story of Allan and his family. I loved the storyline and the many characters, especially Ben Abrim. God's love was shown throughout the book. I look forward to reading more of your work.

Review

This book was highly entertaining following Alan Howarth on his journey to change his life as well as that of his family. I would recommend this book to all my friends.
