Jessica and Elizabeth Wakefield are spending their summer as au pairs--for a royal family! When Jessica sees the beautiful European chateau where they'll be staying for the summer, she feels like she's living in a fantasy world--complete with a prince, a royal ball, and a guarded castle. Is there an evil stepmother too?

Elizabeth adores her young charges at Chateau d'Amour Inconnu. The only problem child is Pierre, a 6-year-old who loves to hide from her. While trying to find Pierre one day, Elizabeth gets lost in a vast topiary maze on the castle grounds. What she discovers at the maze's end just might turn her wildest fantasies into reality!

Ria Ali says

How can sweet valley high get so stupid???? this book didnt live up to my expectations. the only Sv books i like are the junior ones. They TOTALLY rock!!!
And why on hell should those two sisters always fight??? elizabeth is a real arrogant fool and jessica seems such a flirt!!
i liked it better when they were 14. SO THERE!!!

Chelly Wood says

This is the second time I've tried to read a Sweet Valley High and couldn't do it. Too dull for me. Not enough action.

Oh well. Moving on.
