Pretty PG compared to the last Harlequin book. Liked the first story the best. The third story was a good intro to NASCAR.

Jodi says

Liked Miracle season and season of Dreams best.

Jeannie Lee says

You just can't go wrong with a Pamela Britton NASCAR romance! Enjoyed the rest of the stories as well.

I love these type of books.

I especially love Pam Britton's story, since it took place in my area and I had been to all the places she mentioned.

A NASCAR Holiday 2

#1- Miracle Season Pamela Britton

NASCAR Series book 5.5

Maggie Taylor has long had a crush on Mike Morgan and now she gets to work with him on a charity project. Maggie knows she's not the type of woman Mike would date and yet being around him makes her wish she was.

Mike Morgan is hoping to drive again after an accident has him off the racing circuit. He's surprised to find himself attracted to Maggie as she's not his type, mostly because she's a single mother. Only chemistry plays a part in pulling them together, but he fears when he starts racing again that it will pull them apart.

This is a short story about Indi's co-worker and friend, Maggie. We first meet Maggie in the fifth book of the series, Total Control. Can this woman who's career consists of making wishes come true get her own happily ever after?

A NASCAR Holiday 2

A Miracle Season by Pamela Britton (Book 5.5 of her NASCAR Series)

Season of Dreams by Gina Wilkins

Tom Wyatt is not a happy camper. His last three seasons haven't gone well and he's feeling like a loser. On top of that his girlfriend came up with the idea to have a family over for Christmas. Is she doing this to help him or to help her mother's business which is also his sponsor?

Melissa Hampton is wanting people to see Tom through her eyes. Not the surly bad guy that he's become known for. Only her perfect plans are getting a bit wobbly along with her relationship. Merry Christmas, right.

Taking Control by Ken Casper

Aidan O'Keefe owned one third of Satterfield Racing, when his partner died he left the other two thirds to family. Aidan would have to find a way to buy their shares before they sold to a competitor who wanted to take Aidan down. He hadn't planned on the rich socialite to be so beautiful.

Ellie Satterfield knew nothing about racing when she went to scope out her late uncle's business. It didn't take long for the excitement to pull her in but this was only business, right? The lines became a bit blurred the more time she spent with the handsome driver and his adorable daughter.

The Natural by Abby Gaines

Danny Cruise has made NASCAR his life. He has no time for a serious relationship or a dog. Only that changes after he hits a dog and finds that showing interest in the mongrel and even adopting it can help his image. Somehow the beautiful vet comes along for the ride.

Madison Beale is a sucker for strays and the loneliness in Danny's eyes sets her on a rescue mission. Problem is she wants to find a regular guy to spend her life with and Danny Cruise is anything but a regular guy.

Abby Gaines Harlequin NASCAR books are connected. Previous book is Back on Track, then after this story is; Fully Engaged, Checkered Past and The Comeback.

This is an incredibly light book (most holiday romance anthologies are) but that's what made it perfect holiday bedtime reading. It's also perfect for someone (i.e., me) who is pretty new to NASCAR but is jumping in with both feet. I've read 2 of the books in this series of anthologies, and they're a fun way to absorb just a tiny bit of useful information along with a lot of smile-worthy text.

I enjoyed each of the stories in A Nascar Holiday 2, and plan to read the first book. Although I am not a Nascar fan (eventhough I was born and still live in Nascar country), I'm starting to see the serious appeal of the drivers. Yum!

Heather Blythe says

Loved the book. could not put it down..

Gemma says

Enjoyed Gina Wilkins' story the best.

Fedora says

I love holiday anthologies, and this one worked pretty well for me too.

Pamela Britton, Gina Wilkins, Ken Casper, and Abby Gaines each contribute a story to this collection--they bring the races and the racers to life. While they were all enjoyable, I think my favorite was probably Ms. Gaines's The Natural. Danny and Madison are a treat! She's a vet who treats an animal Danny hits by accident, and they're off to the races, so to speak.

Taking Control by Ken Casper is about Aidan and Ellie--she's surprised to inherit a share of a racing team she knows nothing about. Aidan needs to ensure his future by keeping her from selling out. Maybe they'll both find what they need in the other.

Season of Dreams by Gina Wilkins was probably my least favorite. Although I typically enjoy stories about existing couples, Tom and Melissa were a little meh for me. I didn't really connect with Melissa (I'm clearly not the workaholic type ;)) so that probably contributed.

Miracle Season by Pamela Britton was a cute one about Mike and Maggie, whose daughter is pushing her to get her feet wet again...

All in all, a fun, enjoyable collection.
