Guerrilla Tacos: Recipes from the Streets of L.A. Wesley Avila , Richard Parks

The definitive word on tacos from native Angeleno Wes Avila of Guerrilla Tacos, who draws on his Mexican heritage as well as his time in the kitchens of some of the world's best restaurants to create taco perfection.

In a town overrun with taco trucks, Wes Avila's Guerrilla Tacos has managed to win almost every accolade there is, from being crowned Best Taco Truck by LA Weekly to being called one of the best things to eat in Los Angeles by living legend Jonathan Gold. Avila's approach stands out in a crowded field because it's unique; the 50 base recipes in this book are grounded in authenticity but never tied down to tradition. Wes uses ingredients like kurobata sausage and sea urchin, but his bestselling taco is made from the humble sweet potato. From basic building blocks to how to balance flavor and texture, with comic-inspired illustrations and stories throughout, Guerrilla Tacos is the final word on tacos from the streets of L.A.

Interesting to read + unique recipes

I love to read cookbooks and this one really doubled as an autobiography. I wasn't expecting to be so interested in the author and the story of how this taco truck came to be. I probably won't make a lot of the recipes in the book (so much lard) but I found some great tips and a few things I want to try.

Loved it. Fun read.

Enjoyed the life story and the realness of the journey.

Nothing is perfect and we struggle, and we fight, and we fail, and we pick back up, and we discover, and move forward. I like the author, and I'm rooting for him along his continued journey. We don't have to be the same to appreciate each other and to value what each of us has to offer up as human beings. He is someone I would like as a friend...plus, I know he'd always bring good stuff to the potluck. ;)

Great read, great photos, great recipes.

Delicious!

Lots of creative, tasty recipes for making tacos. Recipes are involved but you really create some amazing dishes. If you love tacos, you will love all the new inspiration for feeding yourself. This is a must have on my list.

This is a sweet book, as much a memoir as a cookbook. The photos and cartoons mix together to make a lovely visual feast as well. It made me miss Los Angeles and my adventures there.
