Pat says

If your planning a trip to the Emerald Isle...this is a must read...I didn't finish it until I got home but it made more sense after hearing the history on the trip.

I'm so lucky to have a sister-in-law who gives books! I'd never heard of this one, but received it as a gift as we were planning a trip to Ireland. Although I found the chapter distribution confusing -- it's done by the original regions of the island, so not necessarily how one would travel about -- I never would have went to such fascinating places based on this book's descriptions. The way the author describes things, you just had to go -- Loughcrew and Monasterboice are just two. And there were many we wanted to see, but didn't have the time. A fabulous read for those going to the Emerald Isle, as well as those just interested in the topic. Cool illustrations too.
