From Reader Review The Baron's Quest for online ebook

Roub says

what a delightful read ! i was captivated from the start. it's definitely ur book if u like cinderella kinda stories. the book cud have been more than a 3 star. what i did not like was dat etienne was committed 2 another woman throughout the book n had regular sex wid her. she was not his mistress but more his concubine. they slept in the same bed every night. yet he had the hots 4 gabriella. i dunno what 2 make out of dat type hero. i also think they shud have had sex sooner, maybe a forced seduction. i'm not saying i like rape but it's unbelievable etienne controlled his lust, especially in medieval times. i thought the book was more focused on gabriella converted into a maid, it wud have been more passionate if etienne cud not control himself where she was concerned.

Um livro morno, cujo personagens não me atraíram muito. No início até arrancou alguns risos, mas depois caiu na monotonia. E ponto negativo foi a demora para engatar o romance entre eles... Para mim faltou um envolvimento maior, e me deixou em expectativa que algo acontecesse...

privo di brio, noiosissimo. abbandonato a pag.74

Marie says

A little slow in spots but a nice quick read from a long time medieval romance author.

Tara says

I've re-read this one a few times. I'm a sucker for a cinderella-ish/alpha male story.

R.L. Syme says

Had a down-to-earth plot (no unnecessary head games), and a very cool heroine. The hero was good, but definitely enjoyed how resilient the heroine was more than I enjoyed the hero's journey. All in all, I thought it was a good romance. Definitely worth the read.
